

Message Ministries & Missions Inc.

Mission Update – November 30, 2010

"Sharing God's message of hope in action"

The Peru Christmas Blessing Project

Thank you for your response to the Peru Christmas Blessing Project. All the funds needed have now been provided through your generous donations.

In a few days I'll be in Peru and along with Hector we'll give your gifts to the church and ministry leaders; where the Christmas Blessing Projects will take place. The leaders will then go purchase the gifts for the children and give them away! I wish you could be there to see the looks of appreciation on their faces for your gifts. They are always so expressively appreciative!

After the Christmas Blessing events are over, some of the leaders will send us pictures which we'll post on our Christmas page www.christmasblessingproject.com. We'll also include some in an upcoming newsletter for you to see.

Peru Mission Trip - December 3-12

Hector & Pastor Carlos in Pisco

Please keep our mission team of 3 in prayer as we head to Peru. We're a small team and have a lot to do while there! We'll meet up with missionary Hector Del Carpio and head off to Pisco, Peru. Pisco is in the Ica Region where the earthquake did so much damage in August of 2007. We'll be working with Pastor Carlos and Flor who pastor two churches there. One is in the city area and one is in the new sandy slum area that sprung up because of the earthquake where many people still live in little makeshift shacks. We'll be doing ministry in both areas including: a VBS for children; film outreach; street ministry; church ministry and constructing a pre-fab home for a family still living in a bamboo straw hut since the earthquake. The pre-fab home will be a bigger job with only 4 people but we're confident by God's grace we'll get it done.

Then on Wednesday we'll head back to Lima to do much of the same kind of ministry with the exception of the pre-fab home. While there, we'll stay at the Bible School and spend most of our time in the Pachacutec area, which continues to grow and is one of the largest slum areas in Peru.

India Christmas Blessing Project

Gifts for orphans whose parents were martyred by a militant Hindu group in a Khurda Village in Orissa.

Recently, DC Kaushal of Living Hope Ministries - India was staying in our home and together we worked on a video and brochure for their ministry. In the process we went through a lot of his photos. One particular photo we looked at (shown above) was one he had sent us after last years Christmas Blessing Project.

He asked me if I knew who the children were in the photo and then began to explain who they were. He said "Brother, these children are all orphans from Orissa. Their parents were martyred for their faith in Jesus Christ." Since that moment, I've looked at that picture over and over. It motivates me to do as much as I can to help these children! As you can see in the picture, most of the children are smiling as they hold part of the Christmas Blessing gift they had just received through Living Hope Ministries of India.

Children holding Christmas gifts at Living Hope Slum School in Delhi.

For just $10, children like these living in the slums of Delhi or in the villages of Punjab will receive a sweater, socks, shoes and a warm hat to help them get through the cold winter.

We're partnering with Living Hope Ministries of India to provide these packages for the children. Our goal is to provide clothing packages for 200 to 300 children. We welcome your help if God touches your heart to join with us in the India Christmas Blessing Project. 100% of your gift will go directly to the children's gifts.

Brian Weller